

So what does that mean for you? It means there are two possibilities. You can repent of your sins and trust in Christ³⁰, as the Bible commands, so that Christ's death will be the payment for your sins, or you can deny Him and reject Him, and pay for them yourself. Please, examine yourself³¹, as the Bible says, to see if you are in the faith. See if you are bearing the fruit of the Spirit³², which the Bible says shows you are trusting Christ. And if not, throw yourself on God's mercy, confessing your sins, and trusting in Him alone. And when you do, the Bible says God is faithful and just and will forgive your sins and grant you everlasting life³³. Please, turn to Christ today, while He has given you time.
